Briefing with SBA Administrator, Office of Disaster Assistance, & SBR CEO Roundtable - Friday, March 27th at 2 PM

Join in for a live web event with SBA Administrator Jovita Carranza on COVID-19's economic impacts and the SBA's targeted relief efforts for the nation's small businesses. SBA Administrator Jovita Carranza will join the Small Business Roundtable and CEOs of the leading small business organizations for a discussion on the needs of America's entrepreneurs and small business owners during the economic fallout resulting from the COVID-19 outbreak.

Administrator Carranza and officials from the SBA's Office of Disaster Assistance will discuss the economic relief efforts underway and resources available to small business owners. After hearing from the SBA, Small Business Roundtable CEO's will react and take questions about the current landscape.

Note: Registration is limited to the first 3,000 attendees. If you are unable to join, please let us know and we will send you a recording. Internet access is required to join.
