

The National Conference of CPA Practitioners

Nassau/Suffolk Chapter Volume 7, Issue 7 TAX SYMPOSIUM 2010

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to the 8th Annual Long Island Tax Professionals Symposium. As you might have noticed, the name has been changed ever so slightly to be more inclusive. ("Tax professional" has replaced "Tax practitioner.")

For this coming year, Nassau/Suffolk NCCPAP has added more educational programs to benefit you and your practice. Our Education Committee has worked tirelessly to create a program of courses to keep you up to date and strengthen your practice and our two new Co-Chairs for our MAP Committee have taken up the reins and are also planning an exciting program for the coming year. (Please review our meeting schedule on Page 2.)

Your membership is what drives our board, directors and committees to work so diligently on your behalf. By becoming a member of NCCPAP, you have joined a network of accountants and have access to an enormous store of varied experience and knowledge which you can call upon in order to better serve your clients and grow your practice.

NCCPAP remains steadfast in our resolve to uphold the standards of quality, integrity and responsibility to the public that our profession calls for as we provide our support for the CPA in practice in small and medium sized firms.
